The Boyceville Community School District Board of Education reserves the right to reject any or all applications, based upon the best interests of the district.

The Boyceville Community School District does not discriminate on the basis of sex, race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, creed, genetic information, pregnancy, age, marital or parental status, sexual orientation, or disability in employment or educational programs and activities.

In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), the District will reasonably accommodate qualified individuals with a disability so that they can perform the essential functions of their job. A qualified individual who can be reasonably accommodated for a job without undue hardship will be given the same consideration for a position as any other applicant. If you need assistance in the performance of your work-related duties, please contact Becky Hanestad, Director of Special Education (715-643-3647, Ext. 120).
